

BULLYING RESPONSE (Including Cyberbullying)

At Miles State High School all bullying is taken seriously. Members of the school community are encouraged to report bullying and can do so by contacting the school.

The agreed national definition for Australian schools describes bullying as:

- ongoing and deliberate misuse of power in relationships through repeated verbal, physical and/or social behaviour that intends to cause physical, social and/or psychological harm;
- involving an individual or a group misusing their power, or perceived power, over one or more persons who feel unable to stop it from happening;
- happening in person or online, via various digital platforms and devices and it can be obvious (overt) or hidden
- (covert). Bullying behaviour is repeated, or has the potential to be repeated, over time (for example, through sharing of digital records);
- having immediate, medium and long-term effects on those involved, including bystanders. Single incidents and conflict or fight between equals, whether in person or online, are not defined as bullying.

Behaviours that do not constitute bullying include:

- mutual arguments and disagreements (where there is no power imbalance)
- not liking someone or a single act of social rejection
- one-off acts of meanness or spite
- isolated incidents of aggression, intimidation or violence.

The PBL Framework guides our proactive approach to responding to bullying. Bullying of any form – student to student, adult to student, student to adult, adult to adult, is not tolerated and will be addressed immediately.

In addition, our RISE values and common language, supports the understanding of the behaviour expectations to maintain a safe and supportive environment.

Miles State High School staff members undertake annual professional development in the form of DoE Mandated Training which includes sections related to student welfare, recognising and responding to bullying, including cyberbullying.

The following flowchart guides the schools response to any incidents of bullying that may occur. Should the nature of the incident be deemed to require the intervention or involvement by police or other agencies (e.g. Child Safety), due to potentially breaching the Queensland Criminal Code, then the Principal will report the incident immediately. This includes incidents of cyberbullying.

All incidents involving bullying or harassment are considered to require Administration involvement, and will be addressed as per the response for other serious behavioural infractions. See Code of Conduct for E Safety.
